

PROFILE OF SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

General competence:

Perform, at the appropriate level, necropsies, process biopsies, and perform the cytological study of clinical samples, interpreting and validating technical results so that they may be used to support clinical or medical-legal diagnostic, organizing and programming work at the appropriate level, complying with quality of service and resource optimisation criteria, under appropriate supervision.

Competence units:

1. Organising and managing, at the appropriate level, the relevant work area within the unit/clinic.
2. Performing clinical or medico-legal necropsies under appropriate supervision.
3. Process necropsic and surgical material and clinical biopsies, preparing them for study by an anatomical pathologist.
4. Performing the selection and approximate diagnostic of cytodiagnosis samples under appropriate supervision.
5. Performing the photographic recording of the materials and preparations at the macroscopic, microscopic and ultra microscopic levels.

RANGE OF OCCUPATIONS ACCESSIBLE TO THE HOLDER OF THE CERTIFICATE

Occupations or jobs:

- ✓ Specialised expert in Anatomical Pathology.
- ✓ Technical cytologist.
- ✓ Assistant forensic scientist.