

PROFILE OF SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

General competence:

Perform the inspection operations required to identify, control, survey, assess and, when appropriate, correct the factors of environmental risks to health, developing health education and promotion programmes for people in their interaction with the environment, under appropriate supervision.

Competence units:

1. Organizing and managing an environmental health unit.
2. Identifying, controlling and surveying health risks to the population at large associated to the use of water.
3. Identifying, controlling and surveying health risks to the population at large associated to the air and the various sources of energy.
4. Identifying, controlling and surveying health risks to the population at large associated to chemical products and vectors of interest to public health.
5. Identifying, controlling and surveying health risks to the population at large associated to the management of solid waste and of the built environment.
6. Identifying, controlling and surveying health risks to the population at large associated to food contamination.
7. Promoting the health of people through activities of environmental education.

RANGE OF OCCUPATIONS ACCESSIBLE TO THE HOLDER OF THE CERTIFICATE

Occupations or jobs:

Environmental health expert. Expert in the control of water for human consumption. Expert in air pollution. Expert in waste management.